MEET KELLY

Kelly McNelis is the CEO of Kelly McNelis, LLC, formerly Women For One, a global community empowering women to find their voices and make life happen on their own terms. With more than 30 years of experience as a speaker, coach, trainer, facilitator and small-business consultant, Kelly has inspired women worldwide to build meaningful relationships, strong communities, and the confidence to pursue their wildest dreams.

Additionally, Kelly is the bestselling author of Your Messy Brilliance: 7 Tools for the Perfectly Imperfect Woman (Enrealment Press, 2017). As an accomplished facilitator, Kelly supports women in leading lives grounded in authenticity and self-awareness. Her compassionate and relatable approach has helped thousands of women move beyond limiting beliefs and lead more confident and purposeful lives. Through her work, Kelly empowers women to step forward as effective leaders in their personal lives, professional environments, and communities. Her work has been featured in national media, including Entrepreneur and O, The Oprah Magazine.

Most recently, she received her Master's degree in Human Rights from the University of London (2025). Her future projects include broadening her services to uphold and support women's human rights worldwide.
